Guest Speaker: Mr. John P. Hankey

Mr. Hankey is a noted Civil War and railroad historian who will speak about the role of the railroads in the Civil War. In his presentation to us, John will focus on 2 aspects of the war. Chiefly, did the availability of railroads effectively "cause" the Civil War? And, did the rapidly advancing state of the American railroad network essentially determine the inevitability and date of the Civil War? It's a great set of topics and we look forward to hosting Mr. Hankey and his vast knowledge on these subjects.
